"Friendship"

Someone to confide in,
to take your troubles to;
Someone who shares your problems,
when you don't know what to do.
Someone who doesn't laugh,
or sneer at your crazy schemes;
Someone to stand by you,
as you follow a life-long dream.
Someone you're not afraid of,
who's not afraid of you;
Someone you can always go to,
and tell your secrets to.
Someone who hurts when you hurt,
and senses your every mood;
Someone who understands and forgives,
even if you're rude
A feeling of being cared about,
as though you're really needed;
Someone who always cares,
when you feel you've been mistreated.
Friends are a unique gift,
of that you can be sure;
Friends are all you need,
for a friendship that will endure.

FRIENDS

A friend is someone you can trust
Even though you all may fuss.
A friend is someone who is always there
When your burdens are hard to bear.
A friend is someone who sticks by your side;
A friend can sometimes be your guide.
A friend is someone who cares for you
When you are feeling down and blue.
A friend is someone you love from the start,
And there is nothing that can break you apart.
When you find that life is hard,
Your friend can sometimes be your guard.
Whenever you're feeling down and sore,
That is what a friend is for.

A FRIEND

You're at the end of your rope and feeling slightly down
He knows the right string to pull to help you come around.
He shares his gloves when the weather is cold and still knows your name when you are both old.
He will always treat you just the same don't shoot no bull or run no game.
You don't mind lending him a buck or two
If things were reversed, he'd do it for you.
He'll stick by your side through thick and thin that's what I call a real friend.

Friendship is good for some people while for others who do not have many friends it means nothing at all.
But those who do have friends have something to cherish very highly.
I should know
because without my friends
I don't think I could have taken what I had to go through.

Friendship

One of the best things to have is a good friend,
Who will be with you to the very end.
When times are hard, and you are feeling low,
Your friend will be there to pull you out of the hole.
If everyone in the world were friends,
People would never have to worry again.
So be a pal to someone,
And you will always be happy for what you have done.

Friendship is a gift
You share with someone else

Someone you think a lot of,
Someone who cares.

Laugh with you through the good.

Friendship

Friendship is something you need everyday
It's one thing that makes you laugh and play
Friendship is one thing you need all your life
So maybe someday you'll have a wife
There's not a day you should be without it
If you feel like I do you shouldn't doubt it.
If everyone knew what friendship meant
They could smile all their life and it wouldn't cost a cent
I'll tell you about friendship as I get old
It's one thing that can't be made in a mold
If you don't make friendship before you get old
You'll someday be standing out in the cold.

I Know . . .

With the dawning of each day,
I know I have you to help me on my way.

When troubles are many and pleasures are few,
I know that I can depend on you.

With all the crazy things we do,
I know I have a friend in you.

I'll always cherish you as my friend,
I know I can count on you till the end.

Friendship

Friendship is having someone to share my love of music with, or to associate with when I am down.

Friendship is a thing that everyone has whether he is good or bad.

Friendship is a type of love that plays a part in everyday living.

Friendship

F- is for faith that comes between two people;
R- is for the respect that one shows for one another;
I- is for the involvement in each others problems;
E- is for the eternal love that daily each one shows;
N- is for the new feelings which everyday this brings;
D- is for the dependence that each one feels for the other;
S- is for the security that you feel when you're together;
H- is for the honor that one feels for one another;
I- is for the injustice that each will never show;
P- is for the patience that each shows no matter what.

A friend is something that's easy to be Especially if you want to be friends with me
A friend is something very special in my book
It doesn't matter how you talk or how you look
A friend is someone to tell your problems to
With hope that they can tell you what you should do
A friend is someone who won't let you down
When everyone else is gone, they'll still be around
If you are my friend then you're special to me
And I hope that good friends is what we'll always be.

It started, we were very small;
Together we learned to talk

And not a whole lot longer,
Together we learned to walk

I always took our friendship for granted,
'Til we went our separate ways

But I know that I have something
That will survive from day to day

I would never trade it for all
The gold in the ground.

Friendship is the greatest treasure
That I have ever found

Friendship

When your world seems to have come to an end;
Remember you'll still have a friend.

No matter how great the odds seem;
You and a friend are an unbeatable team.

When you feel ill at ease and nothing's going your way;
Only a friend could change your whole day.

And no matter how far you roam;
A friend can always make you feel at home.

The Cecil E. Hackney Chapter of the National Beta Club has been very active this year. As a way of saying thanks, the club presented the maids and the custodian fruit baskets at Thanksgiving. In early December, the Betas celebrated Christmas with a delicious spaghetti dinner. February was a very busy month. With the help of the 33 new members, the club sold candy as a money-making project. In late February, the N.M. Beta Club attended the District Beta Meeting in Trinity. The club is very proud of Ronnie Wallace, who was elected as the 1977-78 District President. Connie Enloe was elected by Ronnie to serve as treasurer. For the first time, the District Beta Club meeting will be held at North Moore next year. In April, 43 members attended the State Beta Convention is Asheville. Leaving on the 15th, the members were full of energy but on returning the 17th, everyone was exhausted. On May 31, we had a cookout for all of the members.

The Greeks developed theatre as we know it today. The Greeks used a large chorus of people who spoke together to tell a story. Thespis, a member of a Greek chorus, stepped forward and recited some lines alone. Therefore, Thespis is considered the world's first actor.

The '76-'77 Drama Class salutes the Greeks and Thespis. Members of the class performed A CHRISTMAS CAROL for the student body. Many class members helped or performed in the RENOWN RACKET REVUE in the fall. This spring the drama and music departments presented YOU'RE A GOOD MAN, CHARLIE BROWN.

The first one was held at North Moore in September and the second one at Pinecrest High in Feb. In April ten members and two sponsors attended the State Leadership Conference in Charlotte. Our chapter was presented a Gold Seal Award of Merit at this conference. In May we helped put on an assembly program along with the other occupational clubs at North Moore.

Office Occupations

This year we worked with our teacher-employers to get ready for the Southern Association Visitation Committee in March. Mrs. Mae Jackson, a student teacher from UNC-G, taught us in the fall and then returned in the spring while Mrs. Frances Bell, our regular teacher, was on a work-exchange program. Mrs. Bell made slides of the places she visited, and two of the businessmen--a lawyer from Southern Pines and a personnel manager from Star--came and talked to our class. In April we visited the Moore County Schools Administrative office in Carthage.

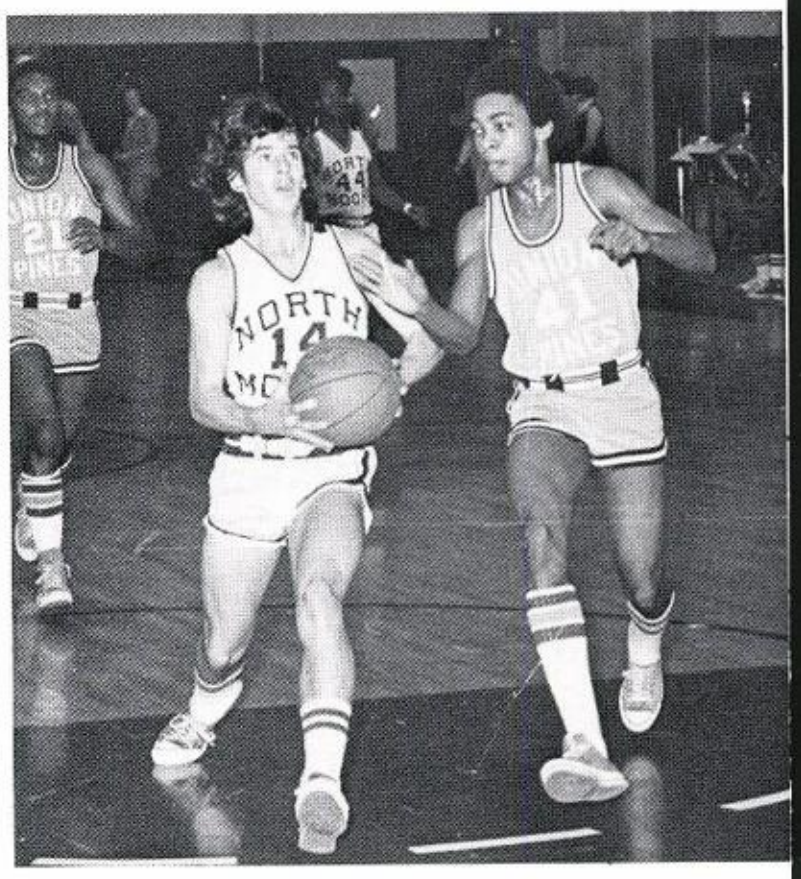
Legs Legs Legs

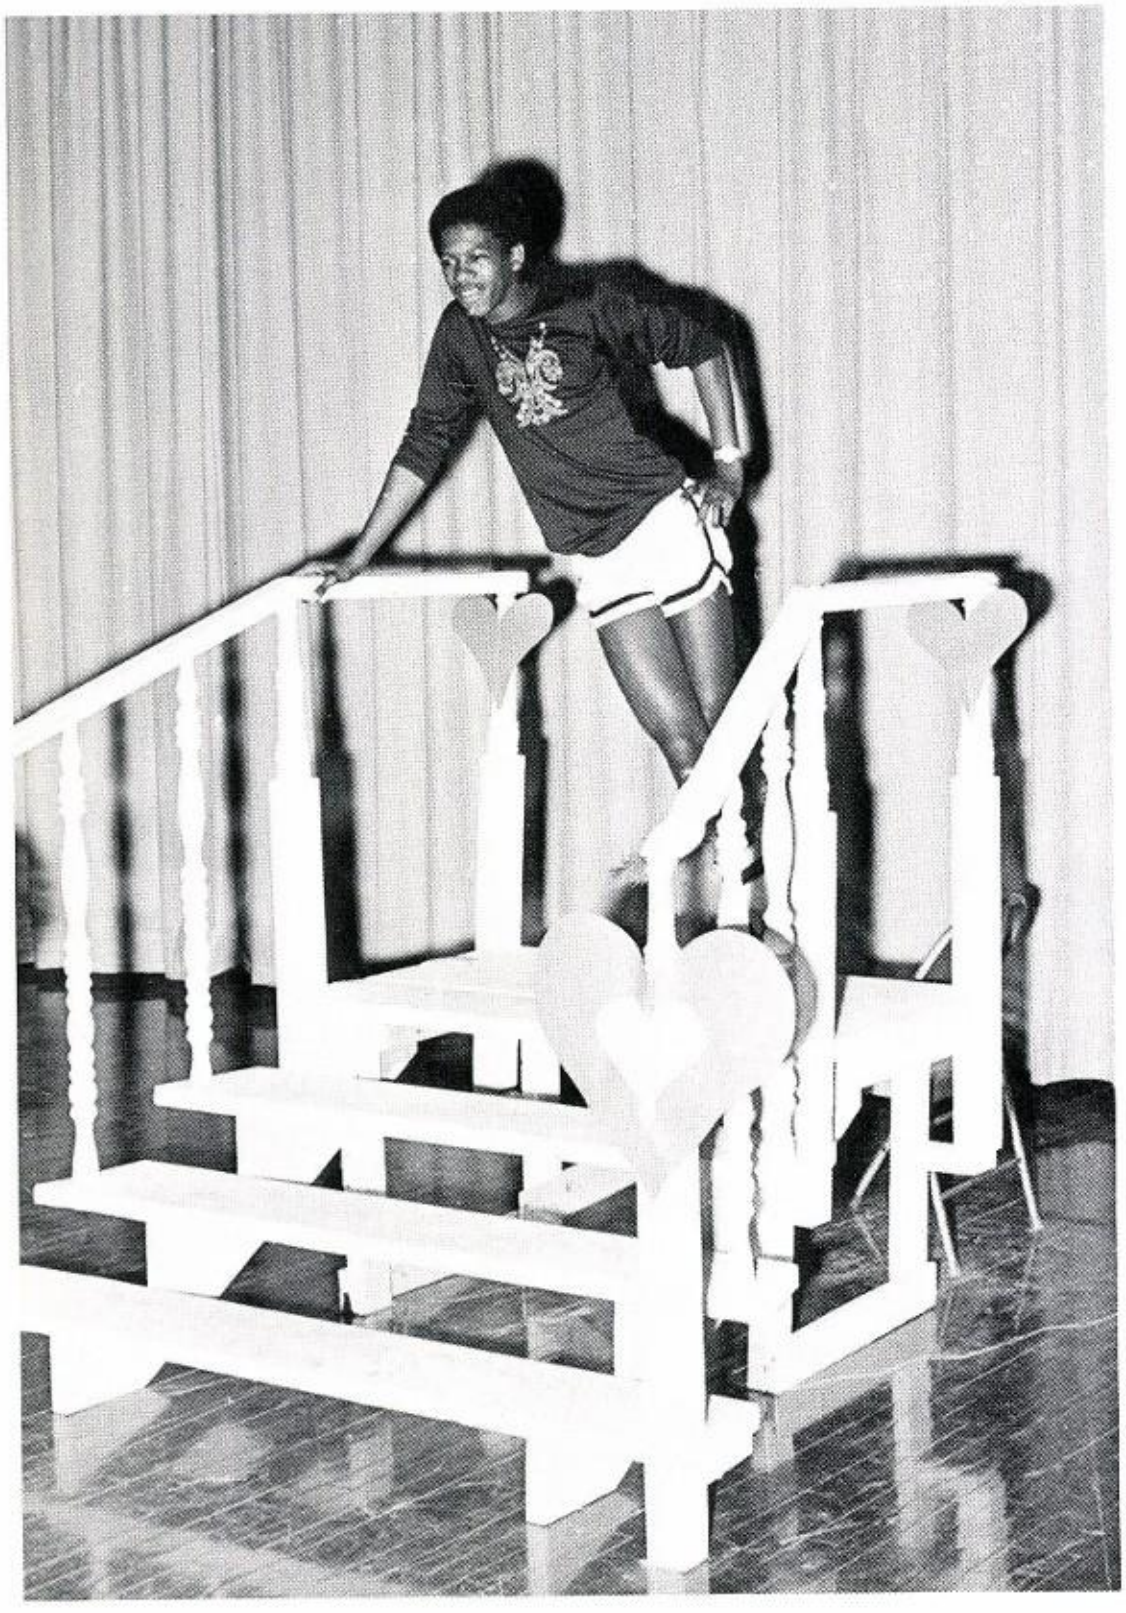
LEGS, that is all we heard for almost a week. During an assembly on February 10, we got to view LEGS!

Bidding for the title of Mr. Sweetheart were Mark Enloe, Clifton Baldwin, Eddie Garner, Donnie Williams, Jan Richardson, Elliot Shamburger, Tee Clark, Greg Garner, Keith LeGrand, Michael Davis, Dwight Ritter, Tommy Maness, Vernon LeGrand, Tim Chalflinch and Cedric Williams.

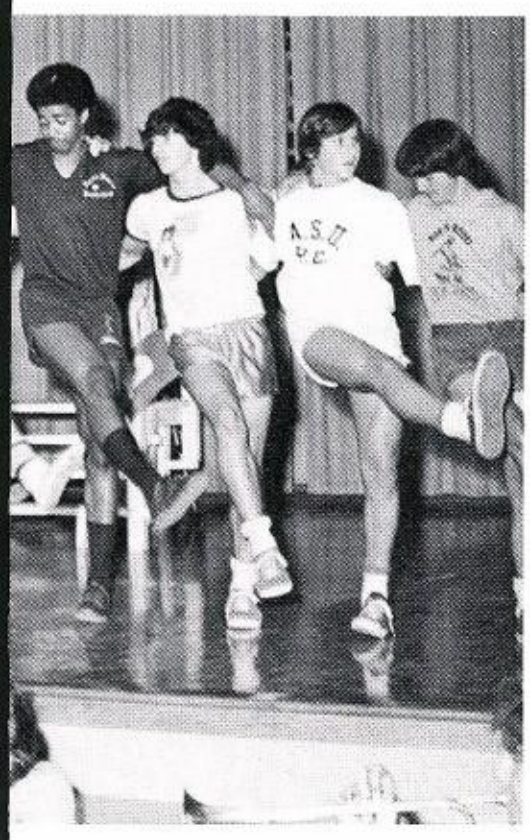
One pair of legs attracted more applause and more votes. Those legs belonged to Jan Richardson.

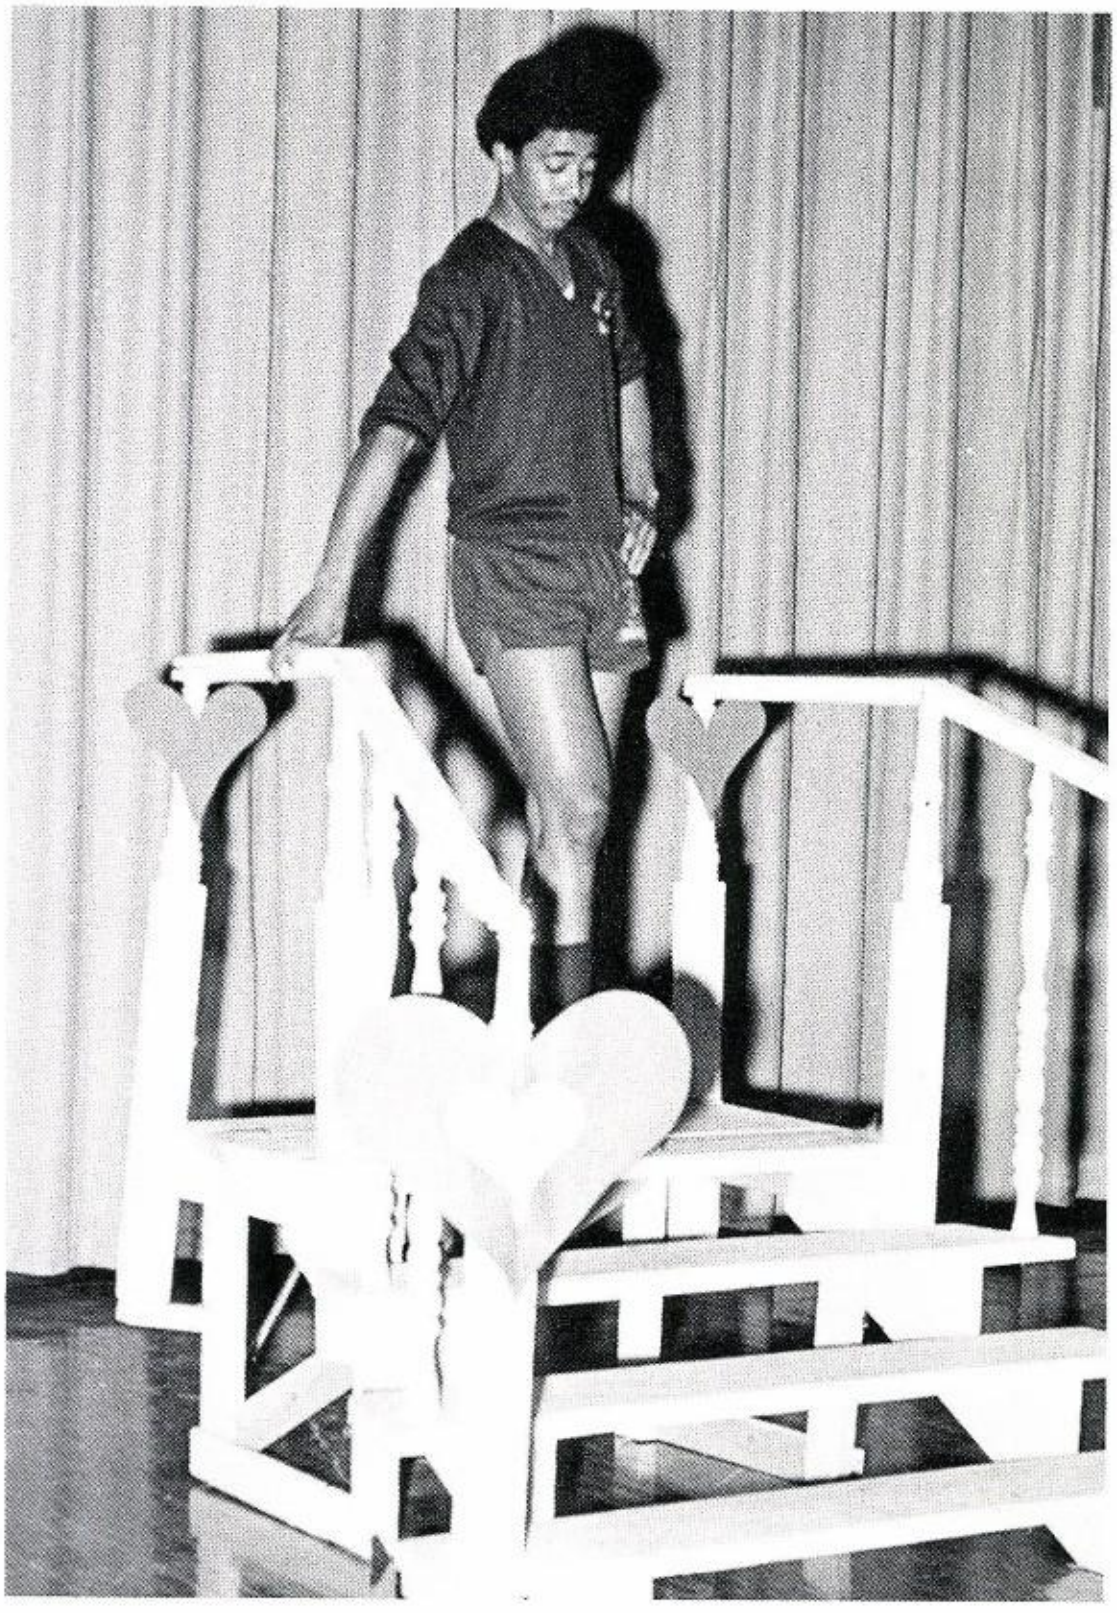
The Student Council is to be commended for the work they have done in raising money for the picnic area, because this is something that can be used and appreciated for many years to come.



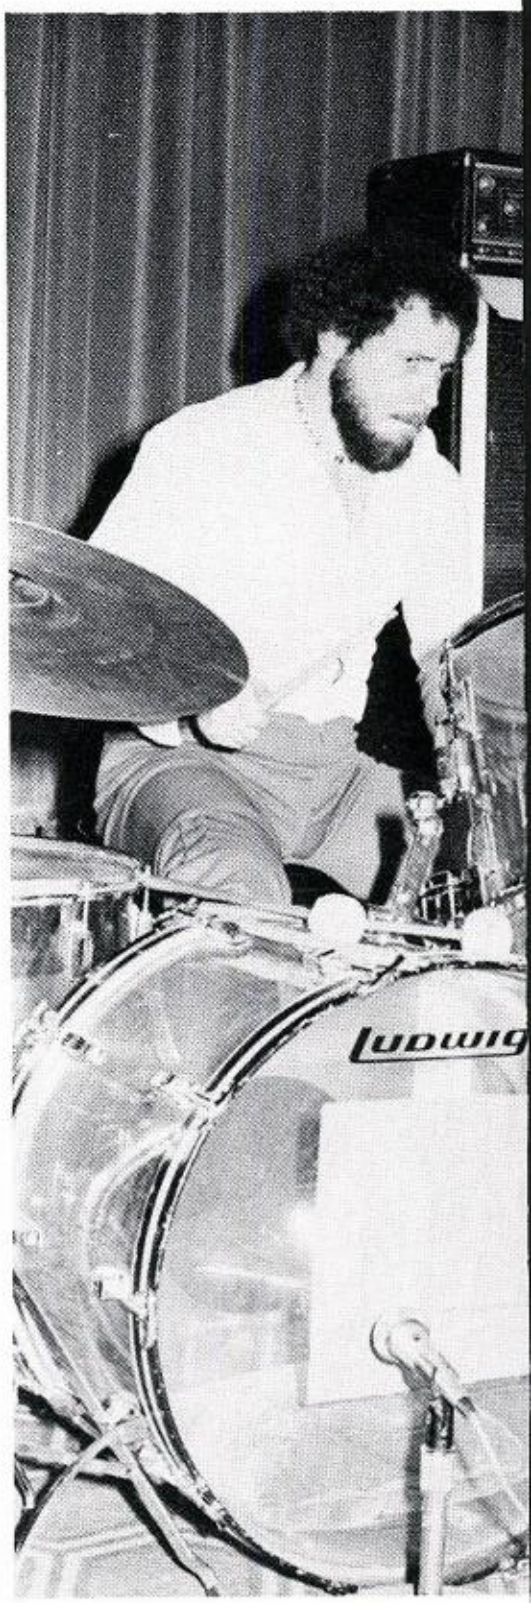


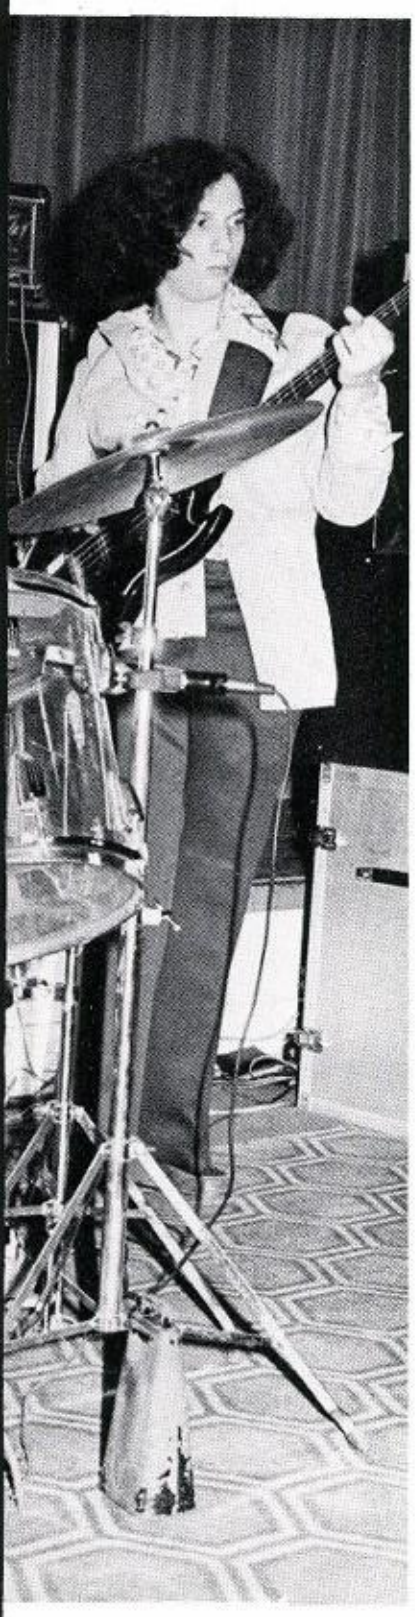
And More Legs



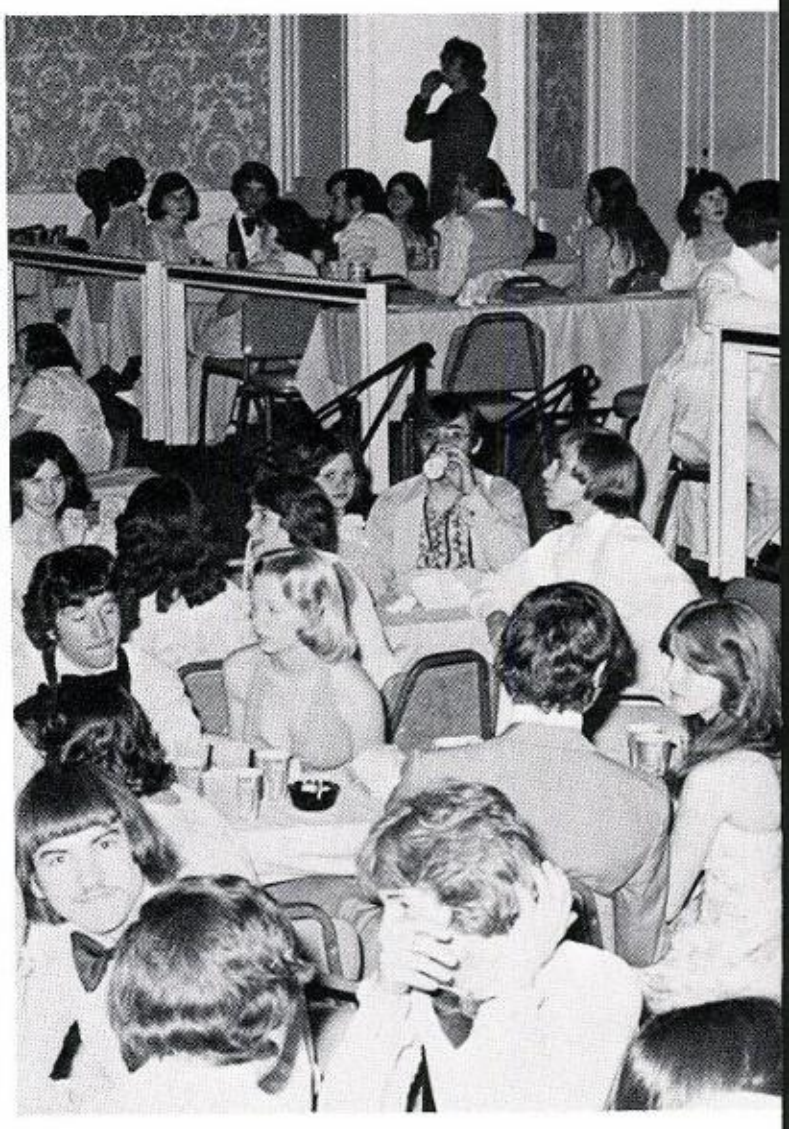


Junior And Senior Prom





"I've Got Love On My Mind" was chosen as the theme for the Junior-Senior Prom which was held on April 8 in the Cardinal Ballroom at the Pinehurst Hotel. Approximately 275 juniors and seniors with their guests enjoyed dancing to the music of The Great American Pasttime.



Assemblies

We didn't have many assemblies this year, but what we lacked in quantity we made up in quality. We began the year with a travelling group performing "Shakespeare with a Beat." One assembly was held outdoors--the Student Council Ring Toss. In December, the Drama Class put on A Christmas Carol which was written and directed by Ms. Jacqueline Parker. The Occupational Clubs put on a Hee Haw program in the spring which was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Coach Andrews

The 1976 Mustangs were plagued by their inability to cross the goal line. Mistakes and penalties stopped our offense more than the opponent did. The defense played well except for a few plays in each game. The brightest occasion of the season occurred on a rainy night October 8 when we defeated the #3 ranked 2-A team Jordan Matthews 6-0.

The players gave a good effort all year. Mental mistakes and a lack of physical ability kept us from having a better season than we did.

This was a rebuilding year for the North Moore Junior Mustangs. We were competitive in all of our losses except two. With a break or two at the proper time, several of our losses could have been victories. Throughout the year members of the team showed great progress and they should contribute to our varsity program.

The varsity baseball team began the season with high hopes of being a contender for conference honors. The team played some outstanding games and some poor games. The main weakness of this year's team was the inability to play consistent defense. There were several outstanding pitching performances along with many outstanding defensive plays. With a hit at the proper time or with the big defensive play made, the team's record could have been much improved. Returning next year will be a nucleus of players to have a fine team.

The birds still sing
And the flowers still grow,
But it is hard to understand why.
Have they not been told
Of the death of a friend?
Don't they know life has come to an end?

Or maybe they know
More than we do
Maybe they know his soul
Is safe and his spirit still free.
And maybe they know that this was meant to be.
Maybe they can see what we don't see.

For us it brings heartache and grief
And we feel empty, helpless and worthless inside.
But maybe God blessed
The flowers and the birds --
Maybe, just maybe;
He gave them insight instead of words.

That must be what
He did for them!
Because they are still growing,
Blooming and free.
And if they didn't know something
That we don't know
Would they still want to bloom and grow?

Yes, God must have told them
For sure that it is all good.
And that Jimmy is safe and his spirit is still free
So let's be thankful
For the flowers and birds
And the insight God gave them, instead of words.

Yes, friends let's let
The flowers and the birds
Be a sign to see
That Jimmy is safe
And his spirit is still free
Because that's the way he would want it to be . . .

Yow, Patricia 39, 128

To publish a yearbook such as ours requires alot of work and cooperation, and I want to thank everyone who had a part in putting this book together. I would like to say a special thanks to Ms. Jacqueline Parker for her art work on our cover, to Mrs. Shields, Mr. Ritter, and Wayne Williams for their photography and to Billy Swindell for his art work in the ad section. Another big thank you must go to our advertisers and subscribers.

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone at North Moore for allowing me to serve as editor of the 1977 Triumvira and hope you will get as much pleasure from it through the years as I have had in helping to prepare it for you.
